1. Purpose and scope

At Park House School we believe it's important to:

- Work in partnership with parents to support their child's learning
- Create a safe, respectful and inclusive environment for pupils, staff and parents
- Model appropriate behaviour for our pupils at all times

To help us do this, we set clear expectations and guidelines on behaviour for all members of our community. This includes staff (through the staff code of conduct) and pupils (through our behaviour policy).

This code of conduct aims to help the school work together with parents by setting guidelines on appropriate behaviour.

We use the term 'parents' to refer to:

- Anyone with parental responsibility for a pupil
- Anyone caring for a child (such as grandparents or child-minders)

2. Our expectations of parents and carers

We expect parents, carers and other visitors to:

- Respect the ethos, vision and values of our schools
- Work together with staff in the best interests of our pupils
- Treat all members of the school community with respect – setting a good example with speech and behaviour
- Seek a peaceful solution to all issues
- Correct their own child's behaviour (or those in their care), particularly in public, where it could lead to conflict, aggression or unsafe conduct
- Approach the right member of school or Greenshaw Learning Trust staff to help resolve any issues of concern

3. Examples of unacceptable behaviour

- insults used as an attempt to demean, embarrass or undermine
- Threats
- raising of voice to an extent or degree that is intimidating
- physical intimidation, e.g., invading personal space by standing very close or the use of aggressive hand gestures
- use of foul or abusive language
- any kind of physical abuse or hostile physical contact
- vexatious or malicious allegations (particularly though not exclusively using social media)
- Spitting
- racist, sexist, homophobic, negative transgender or otherwise unlawfully discriminatory comments
- breaching the academy's security procedures
- covertly recording conversations and/or sharing recordings without consent
- persistent and unreasonable email contact to a degree that can be construed as harassment
- persistent refusal to follow procedures or accept sanctions such as those imposed as a result of prior unacceptable behaviour

4. Breaching the code of conduct

If the school suspects, or becomes aware, that a parent has breached the code of conduct, the school will gather information from those involved and speak to the parent about the incident.

- Depending on the nature of the incident, the school may then:
- Send a warning letter to the parent
- Invite the parent in to school to meet with a senior member of staff or the headteacher
- Contact the appropriate authorities (in cases of criminal behaviour)
- Seek advice from Greenshaw Legal Trust and their legal representatives regarding further action (in cases of conduct that may be libellous or slanderous)
- Ban the parent from the school site

The school will always respond to an incident in a proportional way. The final decision for how to respond to breaches of the code of conduct rests with the headteacher.
